Our services may include advising you on your general insurance needs, arranging insurance cover with insurers to meet your requirements, issuing policy documentation to you in a timely manner and helping you with any ongoing changes you wish to make to your insurance.

Advised Sale Basis

Where we operate on an advised sale basis, we will provide you with a personalised recommendation for product suitability, based on undertaking a full analysis and appraisal of your individual and specific demands and needs, relevant to your insurance requirements.

If we are operating on an advised sale basis, we will confirm this with you during our conversations, which will also be detailed again within any documentation that we provide you with.

Non-Advised Sale Basis

Where we are not providing personalised advice or a personalised recommendation, for example, where you have entered your details on-line, you will answer a series of underwriting and risk requirement questions, based on your demands and needs, to narrow down the selection of products available to you.

Where you have completed the purchase of a product on-line, you will have been provided with clear information in relation to price, cover and features of available products. The products available will have been displayed from the answers you provided. By purchasing your product on-line, we will not have provided any advice or recommendation, and you will have solely determined and selected the product most suitable for your requirements.

4. The Basis on which we act

Most of our work, as an Insurance Intermediary, is done on behalf of our customers and in these circumstances, we are acting as agent for the customer. Examples of where we act as agent of the customer are detailed below;

- Where we provide you with a quotation for your insurance;
- Where we place your insurance, on cover, with an Insurance company;
- Where you ask us to make amendments to your existing policy;
- Where we undertake the renewal of your policy;
- Where we perform general policy validation services.

In some instances, we perform activities specifically on behalf of your insurance company and in those circumstances, we are acting as agent for the insurer. Examples of where we act as agent of the insurer are detailed below:

- Where the insurer asks us to cancel your policy on their behalf;
- Where we collect premiums due and any outstanding insurer monies;
- Where the insurer asks us to obtain additional information from you;
- When we issue policy documentation to you;
- Where we perform additional policy validation services on behalf of the insurer.

Premium Choice may also design and develop insurance policies on behalf of insurance companies. Such products may be marketed as products of Premium Choice but will always be underwritten by an insurance company.

5. Product Selection

We have selected the insurance products and services that we offer you from a limited number of Insurance Companies and Service Providers. We review this panel on a regular basis to ensure their products remain suitable and competitive for our customers. A full list of the companies whose products and services we offer is available by visiting our website or clicking here.

6. Insurer Solvency

We do not guarantee the ongoing ability or solvency of any insurer we place business with to meet their contractual obligations, and do not accept any liability for any losses that you may incur arising directly or indirectly from the financial failure of any insurer. However, we do perform due diligence on the insurance providers that we use, this will consider and review insurer solvency, audited accounts, industry analysis of the market together with information provided from the FCA register.

7. Quotation Validity

Quotations are only valid on the day that they are provided, unless advised by us to the contrary or unless otherwise stated.

At all times, we are not under any contractual obligation to provide you with Insurance Products and/or services.

8. Your Responsibilities

You are responsible for answering any questions in relation to any insurance cover honestly and to the best of your knowledge, providing complete and accurate information, always.

This is particularly important before taking out a policy but also at renewal or if you make a mid-term amendment to your policy. If you fail to disclose information or misrepresent any fact which may influence an insurer's decision to accept the risk or the terms offered, this could invalidate the policy and mean that claims may not be paid.

It is important that you read and check all documentation issued to you and ensure that the information is correct, you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply and that it meets your requirements. You must check all details on your Statement of Fact and pay particular attention to any declaration you may be asked to sign.

You must comply with the terms and conditions of any insurance policy you purchase, including any express or implied warranties. Failure to comply may entitle the insurer to cancel your insurance contract and/or risks a claim you make not being paid in part, or in full.

You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances which may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. If you are unsure about any matter, please contact us for help.

Commercial Customers

If you are dealing with us in a commercial capacity, then you are under a duty of fair presentation. You are required to disclose every matter which you know, or ought to know, that would influence the judgement of an insurer in deciding whether to insure the risk and on what terms.

If you are unsure whether a matter is relevant or not you should provide sufficient information to put an insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries should it consider it necessary.

9. Payment of your Insurance Premium

For new policies taken out, we must receive your payment before cover commences.

We are entitled to off-set any amount you owe us against any monies we may receive on your behalf (i.e. settlement money, refunded premiums and other sums).

It is important for you to understand that non-payment of your premium, either in full or partially or a default on a credit agreement may result in the cancellation or lapsing of your policy by us. If you default on a credit agreement and we are unable to discuss the circumstances of the default, we shall be entitled to provide you with 7 days-notice of cancellation of your policy.

If we cancel your policy because of your non-payment of premium, you will also be liable for any charges the insurer may make in respect of their time on risk and any cancellation and/or administration charges that may apply
Please see section 13 for cancellation of your policy.

We use a third party to collect and store payment card information in accordance with industry standards and operate a Continuous Payment Authority to help assist you in the reconciliation of your accounts.

10. Continuous Payment Authority

Whenever you provide us with your credit and/or debit card details you are entering a continuous payment authority. A continuous payment authority gives us the right to:

- Take payments from your card on a date of our choosing;
- Take payments from your card for different amounts

We reserve the right to use the continuous payment authority to collect payment for mid-term changes, defaulted instalments and balances due to us following policy cancellation. Where we intend to use the continuous payment authority, we will inform you in advance of doing so.

If a payment request is unsuccessful, we will make a maximum of 2 further collection attempts within a 30-day period. You can make alternative arrangements to pay any money owed by calling us on 0330 127 4515.

This authority can be cancelled at any time by contacting us and letting us know that you would like to withdraw your permission for money to be taken from your card. You also have the right to cancel the authority directly with your card issuer.

When your policy is due for renewal we may offer to renew it for you automatically, to ensure continuity of cover, using the payment details that you have already provided to us.

It is not always possible for us to be able to automatically renew your insurance as there may be certain circumstances (change in your risk details, changes with an Insurance Company, Product changes, etc) that prevent your insurance from being automatically renewed. In these circumstances we will need to discuss your policy with you before your renewal date or your policy will not renew.
